Flash interview: Russia aiming to secure their next gold in Team Free

2017.07.19. 23:14 CET

The queens of the synchronised swimming strike again at the preliminaries of the Team Free - they were again the highest ranked team with 96.8000 points and showing some incredible elements during their performance.

"Of course we need to aim to be even better, you always have something to work on and improve. In the finals, we will be better, stronger, even more focused. There is no limit in being good at something, we always will find some mistakes while watching our own performances, we always will find some parts, where we can do better next time. We need to correct every little mistake and to become better and better" - said the Russian team members at the mixed zone of City Park.

“As for the team ritual before our turn, of course, we have some, but it is our secret, we just can’t tell about it.”

“The welcome of the hosts is very pleasant, the views are just unbelievable, we are all amazed by the place where the competition is being held. The organisation of the tournament is very good, we feel really comfortable, Budapest pleases us much!”
